Thanks, I think we can help RD. I'm still trying to better understand Erin's comment

You and your team did a good job on this write-up. I know I have been pushing EFED to write our information in a way that folks not steeped in this can understand. I can definitely see that you have worked towards that goal. And, your team did a good job of explaining the basis for their decisions.

And, I just have to say that HED really needs to think about doing the same. ☺

It looks like RD is still editing the pollinator language to respond to Erin's comments. Is there something we can add to help them out?

No comments or edits from me. ☺

Thanks, this is a lot cleaner than what was on the SharePoint site yesterday, so I feel better about being able to double check it.

Good Afternoon Marietta,

The team has cleaned up the decision memo but as you will see, there are still Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)
If you have any suggestions please let us know otherwise we will continue to work with Amy, EFED, and OGC on the appropriate language.

We have not started addressing the comments from the NOR yet, but it will be at the top of our list for tomorrow morning. We are also still waiting for a response from AgLogic to the terms of registration sent yesterday and we will reach out to them tomorrow if we do not get a response by mid-morning.

Thanks. I have completed my initial review, but there are still a ton of comments that need to be cleaned up and it is unclear to me which have and have not been addressed. Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Hi Marietta,

The link to the latest version is below:

We have been discussing as a team refinements, but with the exception of a couple of questions to HED, we are starting to get closer. I'm pulling down attachments to the comments this morning to get the full scope of the comments.

Let us know if you have any questions.

Thanks.

Debra

Debra – I would like to start reviewing this morning. Is this the version I should use or is there a new version on a shared site somewhere? Thank you.

Hi Marietta and Marion,

Attached is the cleanest version that we currently have. OneDrive was not saving our work earlier today and we now have two documents with comments. Most of the comments were made on this version. However, we still need to pull the comments/edits from the other version and check that against this, tomorrow morning.

Feel free to add any new RD/IO comments directly to this version, or you can wait for a cleaner version tomorrow.

Let us know if you have any questions.

Thanks.

Shanta and Debra
